Regimental Calls and March

Musical notation for the Regimental call of the Cheshire Yeomanry. The score consists of two staves: Bugle (top) and Trumpet (bottom). The tempo is indicated as  $\text{♩} = 108$ . The Bugle part features eighth-note patterns, while the Trumpet part includes sixteenth-note patterns. The music concludes with a fermata over the final note.

Regimental call of the Cheshire Yeomanry [2, p11]

Musical notation for the Regimental call of the 5th Royal Inniskilling Dragoon Guards. The score consists of two staves: Bugle (top) and Trumpet (bottom). The tempo is indicated as  $\text{♩} = 152$ . The Bugle part has eighth-note patterns, and the Trumpet part has sixteenth-note patterns. The music concludes with a fermata over the final note.

Regimental call of the 5th Royal Inniskilling Dragoon Guards [2, p3]

The Cheshire Yeomanry typically used the calls of the 5th Royal Inniskilling Dragoon Guards [2, p11], but also had their own calls.

D'ye ken John Peel

D'ye ken John Peel with his coat so gray?
 D'ye ken John Peel at the break of the day?
 D'ye ken John Peel when he's far, far away,
 With his hounds and his horn in the morning?

'Twas the sound of his horn call'd me from my bed,
 And the cry of his hounds has me oft-times led;
 For Peel's view halloo would 'waken the dead,
 Or a fox from his lair in the morning.

D'ye ken that bitch whose tongue is death?
 D'ye ken her sons of peerless faith?
 D'ye ken that a fox with his last breath
 Curs'd them all as he died in the morning?

'Twas the sound of his horn call'd me from my bed...

Yes, I ken John Peel and auld Ruby, too,
 Ranter and Royal and Bellman as true;
 From the drag to the chase, from the chase to the view,
 From the view to the death in the morning.

'Twas the sound of his horn call'd me from my bed...

And I've follow'd John Peel both often and far,
 O'er the rasper-fence and the gate and the bar,
 From Low Denton-holme up to the Scratchmere Scar,
 When we vied for the brush in the morning.

'Twas the sound of his horn call'd me from my bed...

Then, here's to John Peel with my heart and soul,
 Come fill—fill to him another strong bowl:
 And we'll follow John Peel thro' fair and thro' foul While we're wak'd by his horn in the morning.

'Twas the sound of his horn call'd me from my bed...

D' ye ken John Peel with his coat so gray? D' ye ken John Peel at the break of the day? D' ye ken John Peel when he's far, far a - way, With his hounds and his horn in the morn - ing? 'Twas the sound of his horn call'd me from my bed, And the cry of his hounds has me oft - times led; For Peel's view hal - loa would 'wak - en the dead, Or a fox from his lair in the morn - ing.
